President's Message

Hello ILCC Members,

I want to thank all the members who came out to the Annual Meeting. It was nice to see familiar faces, as well as those of our many new members. If you haven't attended an Annual Meeting in the past, I suggest you make plans to attend one as this is the best way to hear what the board has done the past year to improve the lake, as well as what it has planned for the future.

I also wanted to update everyone on the current water issue in the lake right now. As some of you may have noticed, there is no water coming in from Estling Lake at the present time. Back in mid-September Estling lowered their lake 3 feet due to a DEP requirement to repair their dam. They did lower the water and made the repairs in 3 days, but we have not had much rain since then so we are waiting for Mother Nature to cooperate and fill us back up. I would ask that boaters be mindful of the depth of the water where they are operating their boats. Hopefully by the time you read this message the water is back to normal levels, but I wanted to at least let everyone know about the concern.

Finally, thanks to those who came out to the first two Bay & Lagoon Committee events. The folks who attended the Boat Poker Run had a great time and I have a feeling it will be back again next year with an even bigger crowd. The second event, Wing Night was a huge hit as well with a big ILCC crowd. I'd like to thank Paul Rankin and Al Wilson for cooking the wings, Jacki Hilty and Jen Taylor for coordinating the event, the volunteers who helped make the event run smoothly and the impressive amount of members who showed up to support such a great cause.

I look forward to hearing your ideas and feedback, so please feel free to email me at ilccbobcovello@gmail.com. I look forward to seeing you all around the lake as we transition into the colder months!

By Johari Fuentes

“When we give cheerfully and accept gratefully, everyone is blessed.” -Maya Angelou

For some, giving comes naturally. You can see it in how their faces light up. You can tell that for them, lifting others is a way of living. Like some secret society they mingle with us, (the ones too busy living) but they know something we ignore.

Givers and volunteers have found out that the belief in something is the highest level of motivation. They believe in a common good, their community and that things can always be better. And as a result, they move the mountains we only dream to.

In this month of thanks I want to make sure that the willing volunteers that make Indian Lake what it is today know that we appreciate them. That with every “better” idea members and non-members might have, with every question about what it means to be a trustee, club member or event volunteer, we know you are still gifting us with your time and sweat because of your love for this community and nothing else. Please join me in thanking our selfless Indian Lake volunteers. And the next time you see them around the lake or neighborhood, let them know that they are awesome. I hope we all enjoy this month in grateful bliss, together with our friends and family (real or chosen).

Happy November!

These Indian Lake individuals want their minute in the spotlight too! Make sure you help them celebrate their birthdays:

One of Denville’s favorite sons, Packey Butler will be celebrating the second day of this month (make sure you wave when you see him). Matthew and Paige Dixon turn 21 on the 3rd, Lenny LeFebvre (AKA DJ LeFave) celebrates the same day. Hope Donaldson will be 18 on the 7th, Chrissie Greene will remain young at heart on the 10th and Bryce Remetta will be 9 on the 14th. Zack Zimmermann is turning 12 on the 17th, Brady Jones will be 4 on the 18th and Keegan Jones will be 2 on the 19th. Zoe Donaldson will be 12 on the 20th, Scott VanDine will be 21 on the 21st, Greydon Morita will be 2 on the 24th and Austin Della Salla is Oh Toodles on the 25th. Ryan Iberer will turn 15 on the 26th and Andy Ryden turns 10 on the 27th.

Send me your December birthdays and/or your ideas to: joharifuentes@gmail.com

(Please email me your birthdays at least 45 days in advance) Made a mistake? I hope you consider it an honest one.

See you around the neighborhood! —Jo

Indian Lake Family Club News

As the days get shorter and the after school activities threaten to take over every minute of your spare time, we're all about getting creative and carving out time with family and friends. Due to many requests, we have added some regular events to our calendar. Our littlest Family Club members and Indian Lakers are now meeting every Friday from 10am-noon at the clubhouse for the Papoose Playgroup. Bring some snacks and cool toys to share! This is always a favorite with the toddler and preschool set (and their parents and caregivers!) For the bigger kids, we are starting something new. Once a month, we will be meeting at the clubhouse for an after school social gathering that we're dubbing, Homework Club. Beyond sports and lessons, we hope you can take this time to slow down and enjoy group studying, reading, crafting and playing together. It's our hope that one or two parents lead the Homework Club each month to help facilitate this social gathering. You can help lead a craft, story time, board games or whatever the kids might be interested in doing! Send me an email if you're interested in leading an event. This is an easy way to volunteer and keep these kinds of events going for families! Our November Homework Club is set for November 21 at 4:30pm-7:30pm. Come after school, after work, after dinner and for however long you can! Looking ahead to December, please Save the Date for our Annual Christmas Tree Lighting on December 8. Festivities will begin at 4pm. As always, be sure to join us on our Facebook Group for the latest updates and activities around the lake this fall and winter!

Indian Lake Men's Club News

I can't believe it is already November! Hopefully we will have a mild winter, although the Farmer's Almanac says differently. As the winter season approaches, please keep in mind your neighbors that may need help, and lend them a hand. It's the decent thing to do and what makes our community so unique and great.

The parking lot and basketball court re-sealing and striping was recently completed. The Men's Club donated $5k towards this effort, and we hope that the areas will get a few more years of use out of them before they need a major fix. A big reason we had the funds to donate was due to our sponsors from the golf outing in September who are listed to the right of this column. Please make sure to review the list and please patronize these businesses for your needs. They are really helping to support your community.

December is up next which means the Christmas Tree Sale and Breakfast with Santa. The Christmas Tree Sale starts on December 6th at 4:00 pm, and continues through December 8th. Trees are $50 this year, and as always - we offer free delivery within the lake. (You must be at home for delivery).

We are still finalizing all of the details for Breakfast with Santa, but it will be on December 15th. The big guy has confirmed that he will be there, and we are thrilled that he continues to make his yearly visit to our little village.

Thanks for all of the support,

~Jeff Bertram, ILCC Men's Club President

WORK. PLAY. REPEAT.

Indian Lake Women's Club News

We said goodbye to October with our fall social and Trunk or Treat. Thank you Maureen and DJ Ed. What fun!! Joanne O'Leary orchestrated a great fall social party- thank you for all you do! If you missed the social, come to the next WC meeting on November 14. Laura Carpenter has a fun game planned for us. As the ILCC air gets cooler we say hello to "Sweata Weata." November is the beginning of my most favorite time of the year, not quite winter but boot weather none-the-less. College attendees will be coming home with huge bags of laundry and we will all sit down to a big meal of turkey, mashed potatoes, gravy, stuffing and foootball!!! Which leads me to what the ILCC Women's Club has going on to make your November even better. First on the calendar: WC Holiday Boutique, held at the ILCC Clubhouse, November 23rd. Beth Tecchio has hand-picked a selection of over 30 crafters who will be selling their wares. It is a great opportunity to pick up a special gift, sign, sweets, scarf, you name it. Some of our vendors are our very own members. We love handmade and hope you will have time to pay us a visit. The ILCC WC is planning on making a 2020 calendar that will be sold at the boutique using old photos from the ILCC scrap books so be sure to grab yours. Family portraits are happening this month too! Karen Plumb is in charge and accepting reservations. Please contact her right away as there will be a cut off (TBD). Family portraits are the day after Thanksgiving which is November 29th. If times run out we will have openings on Saturday and Sunday. Karen's Contact info is klplumb@verizon.net. Perfect timing to grab a family photo. Things to keep on your radar: WC wreath sales and WC holiday party. Enjoy your November and keep warm... Winter is coming!

A Taste of Home- Sunset Trail's Progressive Dinner...

Do you know your neighbors? Well if you answered not really, you're not alone. Several years ago, a neighbor and I decided to put together a progressive dinner for the neighbors on Sunset Trail. Not a new idea, it had been done in the past but new people had moved onto the street and we didn't know each other more than to say "hi". So, we picked a date and planned our dinner, and invited the neighbors. We would start at the first house for appetizers. We all introduced ourselves because we didn't know much about each other, other than that we lived on the same street. Within a few minutes we were finding out we had more in common than we ever knew. We were Teachers, Police Officers, Nurses, and Parents! We moved on to the next house for dinner and to share stories of our childhood and of course the Indian Lake stories were the best! Apparently, my house was built on the old horseshoe pits! It was so great to learn about the traditions of Indian Lake that some of us had never known. We moved onto dessert, which we planned to enjoy by the water! It was the perfect ending to a great tradition. We continue this tradition about two times a year. Now instead of just saying "hi" to our neighbors we interact, ask each other about our work day, get mail, help watch each other's pets, and more. But my favorite question is always "When is the next progressive dinner?" My husband and I moved to Indian Lake about 10 years ago because we thought it would be a nice place to raise our son. Well it's the best place ever and I could not imagine living anywhere else! So, When I see you next I might ask you.... "When is your Progressive Dinner?"
